This matter is before the court on Defendant's letter requesting termination of probation.

The Clerk is directed to file this letter as of the filing date of this Order.

The United States Probation Office has notified this court by letter that it opposes the request at this time, noting that the United States Attorney also opposes termination of probation at this time.

Title 18 United States Code Section 3564(c) provides that

The court, after considering the factors set forth in section 3553(a) to the extent they are applicable, may . . . terminate a term of probation previously ordered and discharge the defendant at any time . . . after the expiration of one year of probation in the case of a felony, if it is satisfied that such action is warranted by the conduct of the defendant and the interest of justice.

Considerations contained in § 3553 include, inter alia, the nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant; the ability to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct; the need to protect the public from further crimes of the defendant; and the need to provide the defendant with needed educational or vocational training, medical care, or other correctional treatment in the most effective manner. 18 U.S.C. § 3553.

While it appears Defendant's behavior has been productive and positive, the court declines to terminate Defendant's probation at this time. The court notes that it appears Defendant has been compliant with the terms of her probation, but has not demonstrated any action which warrants early termination.

Defendant's request for termination of probation is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
